

What is a learning disability?

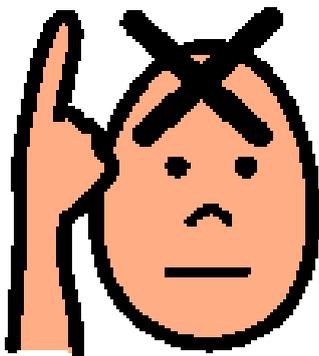

People with learning disabilities find some things hard like

Learn new things

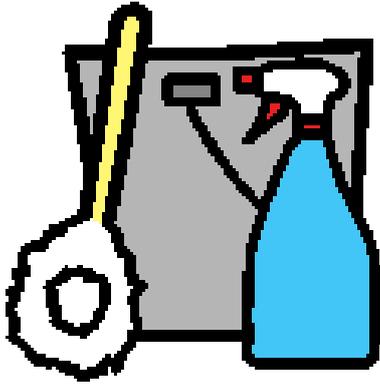

Communicate

Understand things

how to

People with learning disabilities find some daily living skills hard like

Cleaning

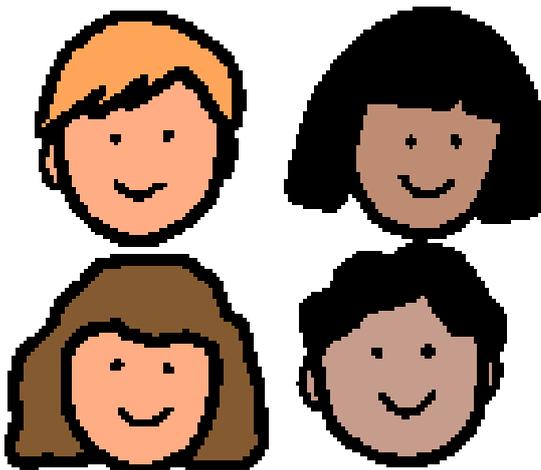

Cooking

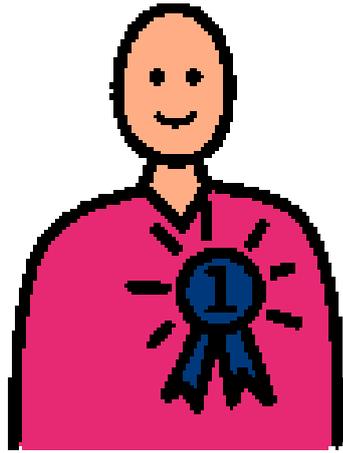

Looking after money

A learning disability is life long and starts when you are young

People with learning disabilities are just like everyone else but may need extra help with some things

We want to know what things you are good at

We also want to know what things you find hard so we can give you the right help

We can do some tasks to find out what things you are good at and what things you find hard

This means we can make sure you get the best support
